An enchanting oasis of Art that embraces the fired sunsets and the African sea; perfect for who is searching for top comfort and for the highest care for details.

Air conditioning | Satellite TV | Internet wi-fi | Mobile reception | Swimming pool | Sea view | Sunset view

The dammuso (brother of dammuso Qamar) is situated at few steps of Scauri district, on the south western site of the island and can easily accommodate up to 5 persons.

This property is a true place of art, on the first large shaded terrace and overlooking the sparkling western sea we find a wide table for open air dinners surrounded by comfortable ducchene with pillows, a zone designed to let guests enjoy the intense colours, scents and flavours of the island. Several outdoor areas with sofas and pillows invite us to conviviality and relax.

From the covered terrace we reach the main body of the dammuso: a wide and bright living room characterized by warm colours, with comfortable sofas and a big dining table; the comfortable and well equipped kitchen is enhanced by old majolicas inserted among smoothed concretes, from here it is possible to access thanks to a door overlooking the backyard to the elegant and cosy garden of Mediterranean and officinal plants.

Always in the main structure we find a small passage with a wardrobe; a warm double bedroom with bathroom with shower from which you can directly access to another external zone, a confidential meditation zone shaded by an original sailing curtain.

A superb contemporary art installation, annually renewed and exclusively dedicated to guests, garnishes the location melting with the natural beauties of the place and giving to those who will stay here beautiful contemplative views.

At a few distance from the main dammuso we find two lovely guests houses,the first composed by a double suite, the second by a room with French bed, both with private bathroom and direct and separate access from outside.

Several private terraces, pagodas, embellished ducchenes and pathways among nature are harmoniously scattered in the big outdoor spaces.

Between green olive trees, lavender and rosemary plants the comfortable swimming pool is a mirror of water in which you could refresh at the foot of a braided palm leaves covered pagoda....the perfect place to enjoy the extraordinary sunsets on the sea that this island every day gives us with Africa very close to the horizon.
